

DISH SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

Celebrating the Dish, functional and/conceptual works on the theme are welcome to apply. The Gallery will be set up with a large scale table, shelves resembling an open kitchen and space is available for installations and wall mounted pieces. (Large pieces over 10lbs in weight/over $1000 in value may not be eligible to receive free return shipping of unsold works.)

Submissions are to be completed online from April 1st to June 10th, 2017 at www.medalta.org/dish.

Entry Fee: $20 Canadian (for those of you in the US that's about $15 USD).

Online submissions can include up to 5 images of your finished work (images: 1MB each) along with title, description, dimensions, and a retail price in Canadian dollars.

- * Sets are eligible. A set must be photographed together in one photograph and would count as 1 of your 5 entries. Sets are to be priced and sold as a complete set; we will not offer individual pieces from a set to be sold separately.
- * Front and back views are not required, but if you feel it's necessary to properly convey your work using a front and back view, then using a side by side shot as one of the entries/uploads is recommended.
- * Artwork in the photos submitted must be available for the exhibition. No substitutions. Medalta reserves the right to reject any work that that differs from the original submission.
- * All work must be created in the past 2 years and be for sale. Submit retail prices in Canadian dollars. Artists receive 60% commission on artwork sold and will be paid via paypal, cheque or email transfer after the closing of the exhibition.
- * All work must be properly prepared for exhibition, be durable enough to survive shipping and display, and come with assemblage instructions/specialized hardware if applicable.
- * All selected artwork must arrive at Medalta no later than September 1st. Artists are responsible for all shipping and insurance costs to deliver the artwork to Medalta. Medalta will cover return shipping & insurance for unsold artwork.
- * All unsold work will be shipped back to artists in February 2018. Work exceeding 18", 10lbs, or $1000 value may not be eligible for free return shipping.
- * Medalta reserves the right to use photographs, write ups, and images and of accepted work for online and print publications and/ promotion.
